JASON DOKLA Secretary-Treasurer

October 2019

Dear Members,

It comes with great honor and privilege that I can report President Mark A. Espinosa, along with the Executive Board has appointed me to fulfill the roll of your Secretary-Treasurer for the remainder of James R. Wallace Jr.'s term. As many of you may know, James has retired after 32 years of dedicated service to this Union and its' Membership. I congratulate and wish him well on his new adventures in life.

As I transition into my new roll, I will work hard to continue Mr. Wallace's diligence and prudence in matters of Union finances as well as Member representation. In my 18 years working at Local 919, we have come a long way at improving the lives of our members and their families, but much work still needs to be done. Those out to destroy organized labor and take away your democratic right to join and support your Union will never rest. The "Right-to-Work" anti-labor groups are still alive always pushing their anti-worker agenda. Unions give workers the power to improve their workplaces, and have a long history of creating lasting, progressive changes. Those who do not belong to a Union, would rather you lose it, than fight to gain it for themselves. We must always be on guard. We must protect our Union Contracts and enforce them whenever possible. As Sisters and Brothers, we should stand tall and strive to bring economic justice to the workplace and social justice to our communities.

I am humbled with President Espinosa's trust and faith in me. I have always admired Mark's leadership and appreciated his friendship and loyalty. Together, along with the hardworking representatives and staff at Local 919, we will continue to work hard for you. I look forward to seeing you all in your workplace, on a picket line or talking to workers desiring to join our Union.

In Solidarity,

Jason Dokla UFCW Local 919 Secretary-Treasurer

Stop & Shop and the Power of Standing Together

Guest Editorial by Dave Young, Director, UFCW Region 1

Members of Local 919 have always known that building a better life for hard-working families starts with a united voice that can stand up to powerful corporate interests.

We can look to the Stop & Shop work stoppage in April as a clear example of the power workers have when they stand together for a better life. Many of you participated in or were affected by the 11-day work stoppage to protest Stop & Shop's proposed cuts to health care, take-home pay, and other benefits.

Local 919 members, along with our brothers and sisters at Locals 328, 371, 1445 and 1459, took a stand against corporate greed and received strong support from our customers and the communities we serve as we fought for fair contracts.

Thanks to your incredible efforts, you were able to help make Stop & Shop a better place to work and shop by negotiating contracts that preserve health care and retirement benefits, provide wage increases and much more.

While these contract negotiations were a victory for Stop & Shop workers in New England, we must never forget that millions of other workers in our country are struggling to survive in the current "gig economy." Millennial workers, in particular, are holding two or more part-time jobs with little to no benefits just to make ends meet.

Now more than ever, we must continue to reach out to our friends and neighbors and let them know that the key to building an economy that works for all of us is standing together in solidarity. We must make the point that as more workers organize and join this movement, we will strengthen the power we have to lift up all workers and restore our economy so that everyone can succeed, not just the top one percent.

We must continue to spread the word that in unity, there is strength. When we organize and stand together as a union family, we can strengthen and amplify the voices of all working families as we did during the Stop & Shop contract negotiations.

Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do to make our union better and stronger. By standing together in solidarity and spreading the word about the benefits of belonging to our union family, we can improve the lives of all working families and build a stronger economy for workers across the country.
