Member Perks!

Don't miss out on discounts

Are you taking advantage of the various discount programs available to UFCW members?

As a member of our UFCW family, not only do you get a contract that provides important benefits, like job security and quality, affordable health care—you are also eligible for a number of exclusive discount programs.

There are TWO different discount programs, doubling the number of discounts you can receive. What's more is these are just the discounts offered to ALL UFCW members. Your Local Union might have specially negotiated discounts that are available only in your region, so be sure to ask your union representative.
